

Medal Results of the 2006 Canadian Wine Awards

Syrah, the big reds, Gewürztraminer and Pinot Gris rule in British Columbia! Riesling, Chardonnay and Icewine in Ontario! Many of Canadian wine's emerging regional strengths were confirmed by the 6th annual Canadian Wine Awards, but there are surprises as well – two Ontario gold for Cabernet Sauvignon that herald Niagara's best ever showing in categories based on the red Bordeaux varieties

The competition held in Penticton, B.C. in September featured over 700 wines from all of Canada's wine regions. Sixteen judges (see list below) from B.C, Alberta, Ontario and Quebec worked through the best organized and documented blind wine judging event ever held in Canada.

'It was an exciting year to be a taster at the Canadian Wine Awards", said Chief Judge David Lawrason. "The competition was very tough in most of the categories, and overall the judges felt quality was generally higher and more consistent across more wineries than ever before." Over 90 wineries entered this year.

In the December Issue of Wine Access on newsstands in mid-November, watch for complete results of the Special awards, including Winery of the Year, Red, White and Sparkling, and Sweet Wines of the Year, the top wines in each category, plus analysis and commentary of the 2006 Canadian Wine Awards.
